
"A sheltered atmosphere, relatively isolated from world crises and misfortunes but giving us a sense of purpose and involvement in this largely aimless world."

Class Of 1969

A place not only where the student was part of a thriving student body . . .

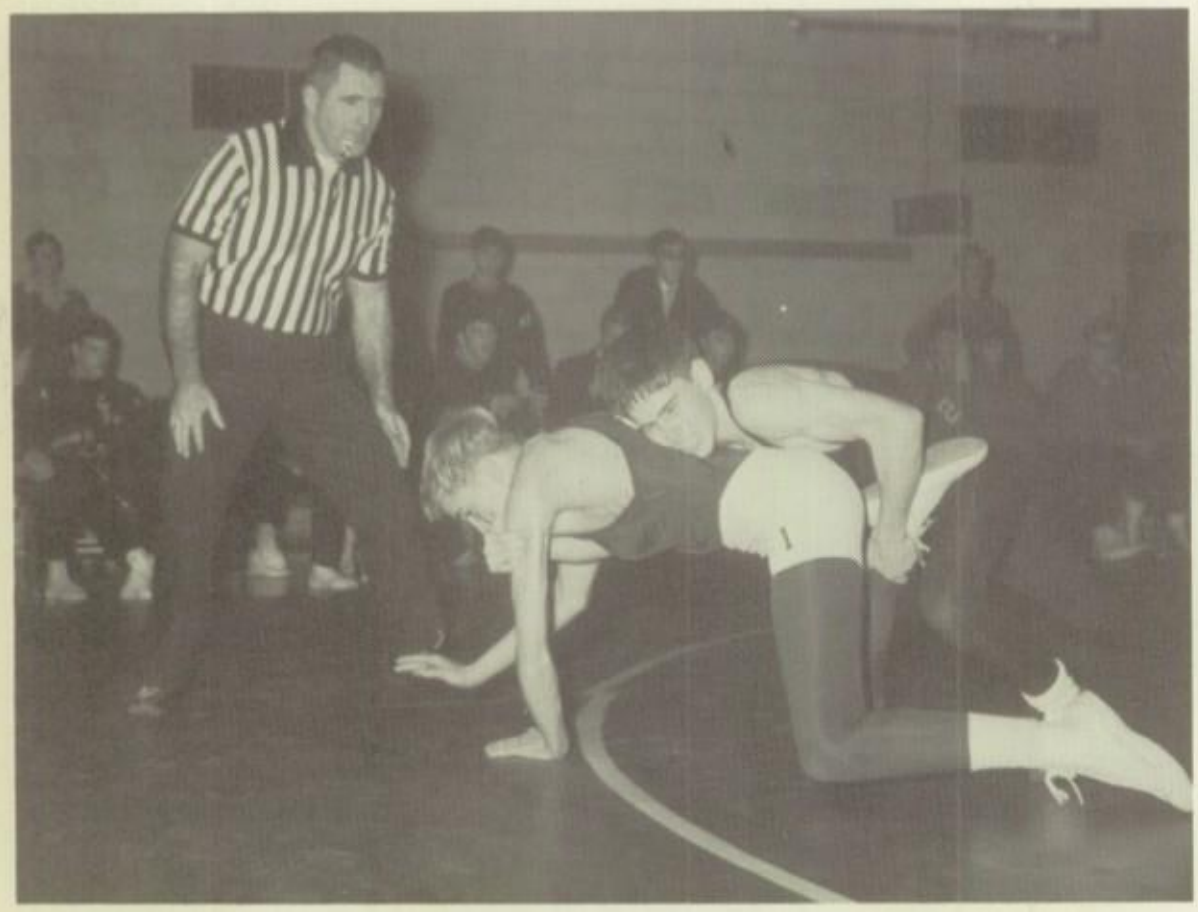
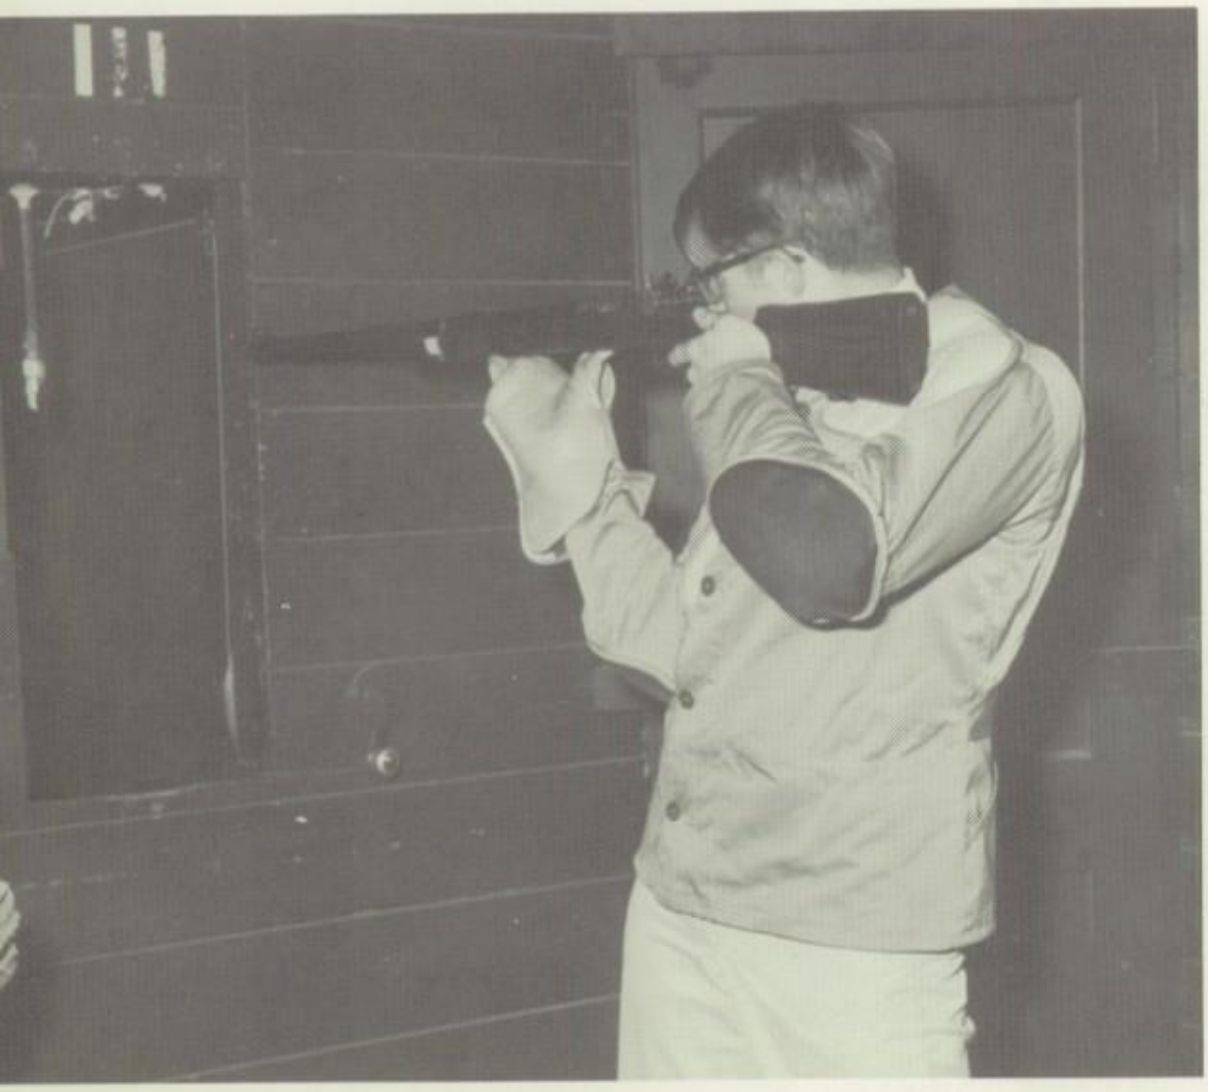
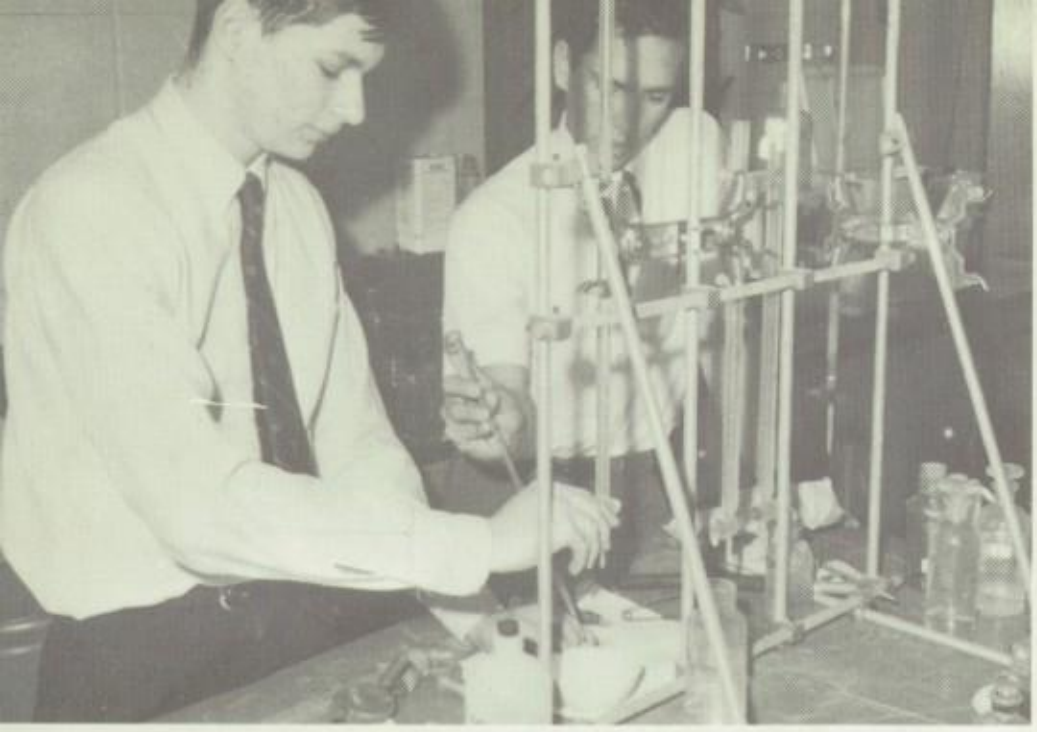
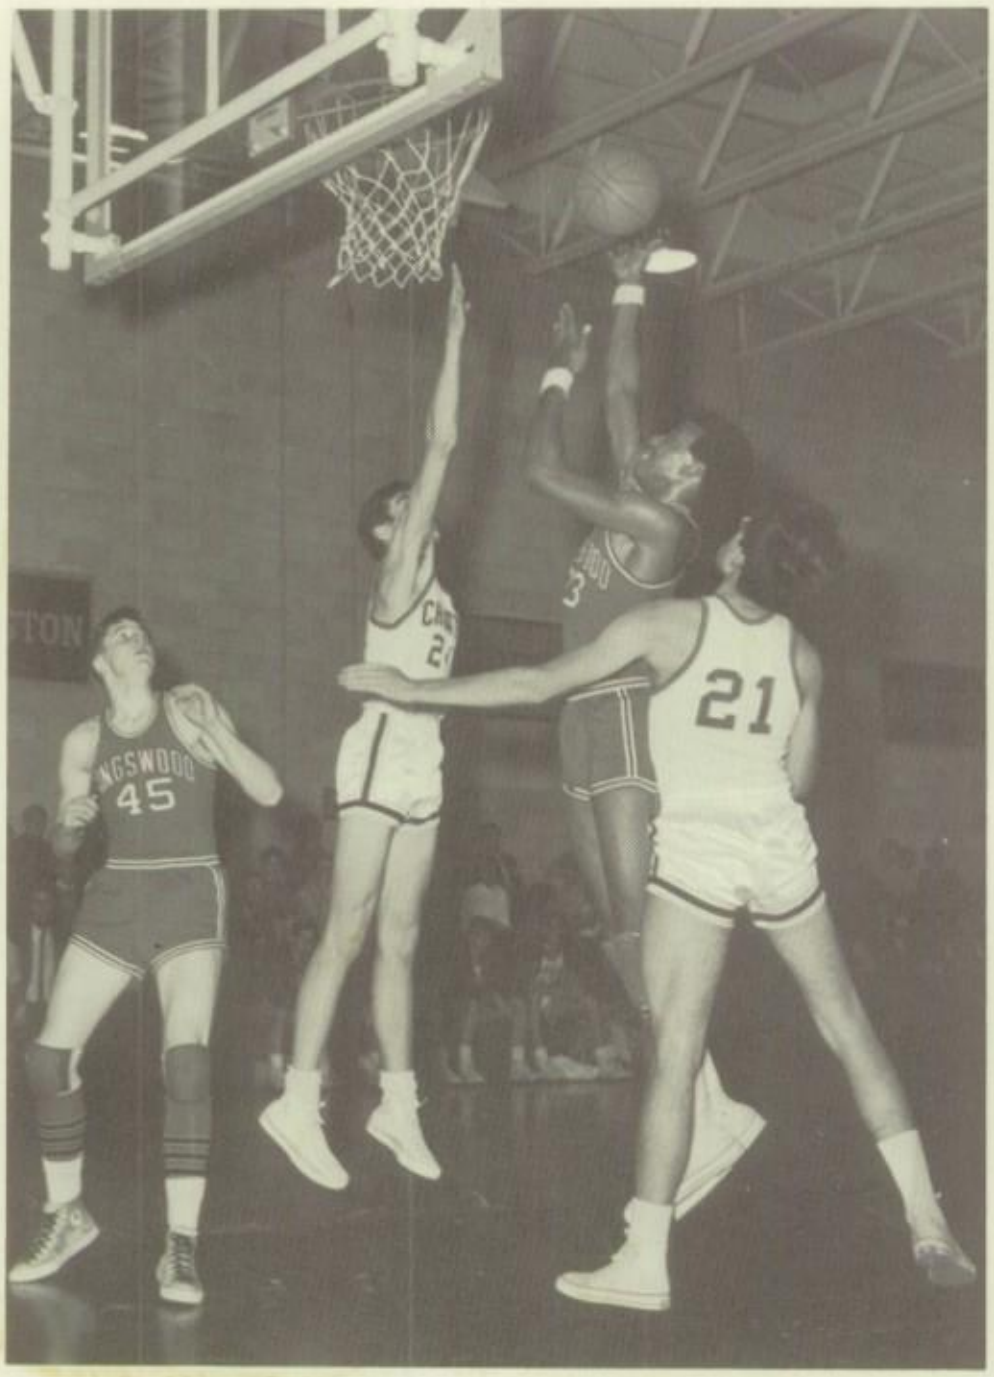
but also where he realized the opportunities for individual achievement.





Close relationships between student and teacher, resulting from discussion and enlightenment.





A time of constant grasping for diversion, achievement, and fulfillment.

Becoming a part of Kingswood's past . . .

. . . and facing the challenge of existence with the triumphs and problems that humanity has thrown into the laps of our generation.

To William J. Driscoll . . .

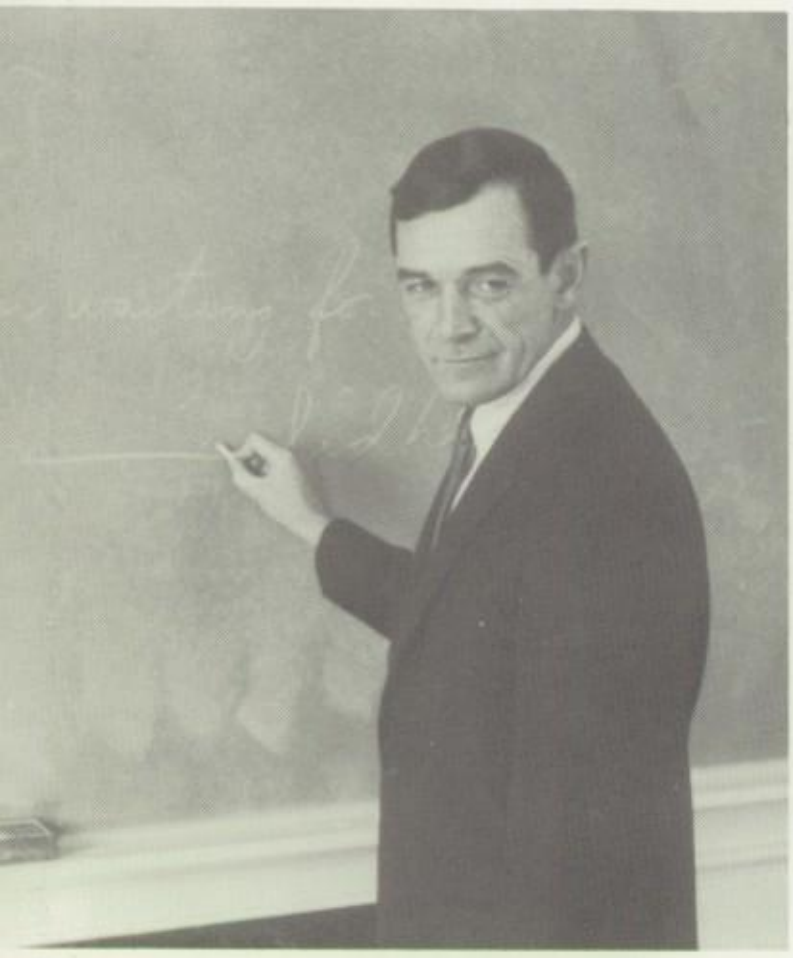
. . . whose sense of humor, patience, incisive wit, literary ability, and dedication to the student have truly inspired the class of '69.



. . . with gratitude to . . .

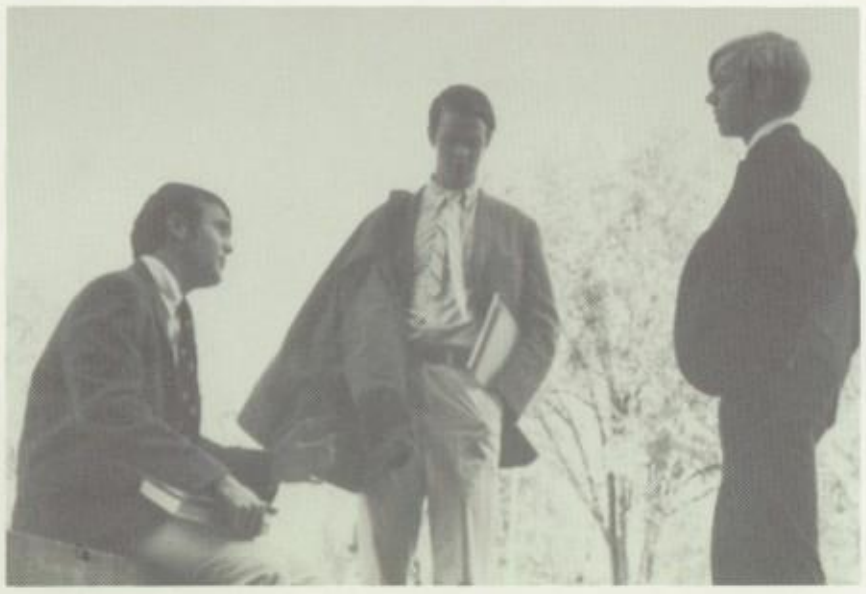
Look out, girls, it's that devil-may-care-man-about-town, TYLER!

"But Boss, do you think the trailer could take it if you patched out?"



"Two bucks? To see THAT bald?"

"Why is it that every time I ask you to have a word with the seniors it turns into a two-hour lecture?"

Today football — tomorrow stag films!

The gospel according to St. Mal.

"We've got to stop meeting like this."

Spider-man strikes once again!

The school's roughest sport.

"No I am not a pickup!"

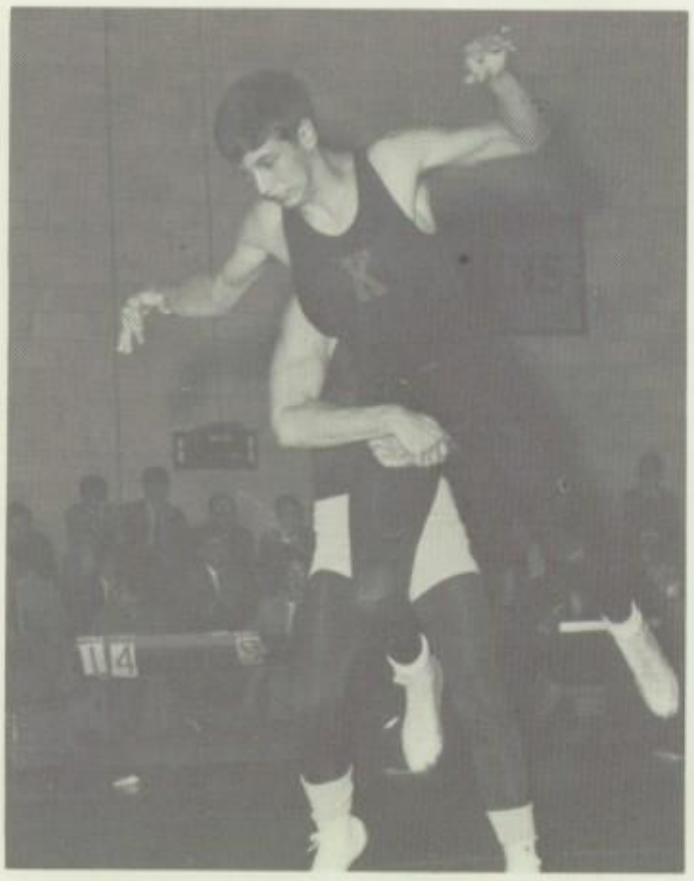
"Try to make me get a haircut, will ya?"

"Smile when you say that, pardner!"

"It's that famous H. P. Goldfield! Cut me a lock of his hair!"

"Man! Look at her!"



Hai Karate Goober Maneuver #3.

"C'mon, Mrs. Robinson, don't you want to play leapfrog with us?"

"You sure that isn't mud?"

"Who stole my 38¢ and a dirty towel?"

"I'm no. 2, but I try harder!"

"Beer?"

"Sshh! Civie's proposing!"

"O.K. lady, pick out the one who attacked you."

Foto by Flashbulb Berson.

"Parsons steered me wrong; I can't have a weed here."

"Gee, Tom, now you're almost as tall as your brother!"

"Sure I drink my own brew!"

"My cup runneth over!"

"To hell with coffee breaks!"

Our own CIA man on campus.

The Businessman's Department Store

"The boss who does not want to 'spoil' his employees with a comfortable office may be costing his company money." (N.Y. Times, Sept. 29, 1968)

Go on . . . 'spoil' your employees. And the place to start is Harris Office Equipment. It's often called The Businessman's Department Store because here you'll find everything imaginable for your office: desks and chairs, beautiful desk accessories and office supplies.

Some of our many departments include: Executive Office Furniture; Executive Gifts and Desk Accessories; Office Supplies; Budget Office Equipment; Used But Not Abused Office Furniture; and Refurbishing, Repairing and Refinishing Department.

You might want to consult our interior designer for advice on office planning . . . or office landscaping.

And when you do business with The Businessman's Department Store, you might get a little 'spoiled.' Simply call Harris Office Equipment (246-7491) Monday through Friday from 8:30 am to 5 pm. You can place your order on the phone . . . or if you prefer, make an appointment to have one of our experts visit you.
